

MUSEUM RULES

Please review these with students before your trip:

- No touching of artwork or gallery walls.
- Stay at least 18 inches from the walls and the art.
- Use only pencil in the galleries.
- Check in all bags (except purses) before entering the galleries. Students should leave backpacks on the bus; lunches should be consolidated in boxes and can be stored in the staff lobby (MOCA Grand Avenue) or by the museum entrance (The Geffen Contemporary at MOCA).
- No water, drinks, gum, or food in the galleries.
- Students must stay with their tour group.
- No flash photography in the permanent collection; no photography in temporary exhibitions.
- One parent or teacher chaperone is required for each 10 students.
- Use restrooms before your tour. If your tour begins at the same time MOCA opens, please use public restrooms indicated on the walking maps.
- Orient parents to their role as adult museum visit chaperones (See the separate Parent Chaperone Guidelines handout.)

Thank you!
